THANK YOU TO ALL CLUB MEMBERS FOR LENDING YOUR CREATIVE IDEAS AND PROVIDING PHOTOS.

It is with great pride from our family that I would like to express my congratulations on the celebration of the 100th Anniversary of the Rotary Club of Beverly Hills to all members both current and past.

My late father, Warren F. Ackerman, was a member of Rotary for over 60 years.

He always placed Service Above Self.

The camaraderie of sharing Rotary each week with his generation which included William C. Ackerman, Jack Albers, Stanley Black, Ugo Mamalo, Jack Mathis, Kenneth Peters, Walt Puffer and many others was always an inspiration for my father to show up and serve. Whether home or abroad, Dad never missed a Rotary meeting.

I hope that future generations of Rotarians will share that commitment.

Thank you with gratitude,
Laurie Ackerman

Evan Lovett

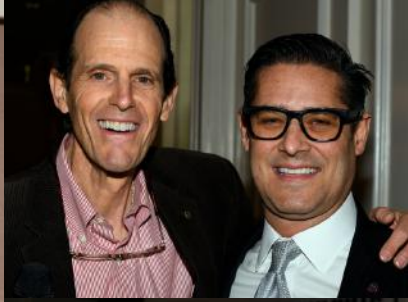

Evan Lovett is the creator of social media mainstay L.A. in a Minute and the host of the podcast In a Minute with Evan Lovett. Lovett attended UCLA to pursue journalism, landing positions at the L.A. Times and NBC before moving to the AdTech space for two decades.

Lovett began L.A. in a Minute through a desire to share the culture & history of his hometown. Creating highly-researched and entertaining videos about the evolution of L.A.'s neighborhoods, infrastructure, cultures and food, residents of Los Angeles (and beyond) responded enthusiastically to these videos. Within one year, Evan was featured on KCRW, KISS-FM with Ryan Seacrest, Access Hollywood w/ Mario Lopez, KTLA, Spectrum1, and Fox11, as well as sitting down with Los Angeles Mayor Karen Bass on her one year anniversary to discuss her first year in office.

After the success of L.A. in a Minute, the podcast In a Minute with Evan Lovett was created as a natural partnership with Audacy and KNX News 97.1, the largest terrestrial all-news channel on the West Coast. Lovett was creating daily "In a Minute" pieces for the radio channel, and a podcast was the next logical step. Within three months, the podcast grew to reaching 10,000 listeners per episode and is consistently in the Top 5 on the Apple Places & Travel charts, Top 250 in their Society & Culture. The podcast has featured Los Angeles luminaries including Michael Connelly (creator of Bosch, The Lincoln Lawyer), Estevan Oriol, Born X Raised founder Alex 2Tone Erdmann and Mister Cartoon.

As L.A. in a Minute and In a Minute with Evan Lovett continue to thrive, Evan explores the history and culture of the region with relentless curiosity and passion. His shows are personal and intimate, while sharing interesting and unique facts that will leave the viewer happier and more informed. There is history everywhere, as long as you know where to look, and Evan and L.A. in a Minute will help guide the way.

Let's get into it!

Julian Miranda

Julian graduated from the LA County High School of the Arts (LACHSA). After graduating he embarked on singing commercial jingles, radio jingles and became the lead singer of various local cover bands around the LA area, performing and holding residencies at such places as BB Kings Universal City Walk, Disneyland, California Adventure and overseas in Guam & Thailand.

Julian's first major tour was singing back up for Jessica Simpson on her Sweet Kisses Tour, then on to Teena Maria and Rick James for 7 years, as well as the Enrique Iglesias World Tour, where they traveled to over 33 countries.

He has performed with and opened for Ray Charles, Oleta Adams, Luther Vandross, Gloria Estefan, Stephen Bishop, Juanes & Nelly Furtado.

Currently, Julian lives and works in both LA and Las Vegas, and often sings back up for his dear friend, the iconic Taylor Dayne.

Julian has helped scout & cast for NBC's The Voice, finding some fantastic vocal talent for seasons 23, 24 & 25!

It's not what we have in our life,
but who we have in our life
that matters most.
